

WHERE
NEW YORK
BEGINS.

Pioneer Job Description

Title: Pioneer Deckhand

Reports to: Master, Schooner Pioneer

South Street Seaport Museum seeks a qualified candidate for the position of Pioneer deckhand. We invite motivated individuals to join our growing team of professionals. The Seaport Museum, located in a 12 block historic district, once the city's main port, is dedicated to preserving and interpreting the history of New York as a port city. The Seaport Museum owns and operates a large fleet of historic ships at Pier 16 in the East River, including the 1907 lightship Ambrose, the 1885 cargo sailing ship Wavertree, the 1930 wooden tug W.O. Decker and the 1885 schooner Pioneer. Awarded Tall Ships America's Sail Training Program of the Year 2012, Pioneer has a 48 year history of advancing careers on Tall Ships. Visit www.seaportmuseum.org/sailnewyorkharbor to learn more about schooner Pioneer and her programs.

Standard Workweek: Monday – Friday 0900 – 1700

Position:

The deckhand position is a chance to develop as a mariner in a challenging and fast paced environment. Programs include Education, Charters and Public sails in NY Harbor, as well as occasional visits to ports farther afield. The position runs March 15 to October 31, 2019. The Deckhand assists in all day-to-day sail operation & maintenance of the ship. Deckhands work a 5 day week. may also serve as Relief Crew evenings and weekends as needed.

Qualifications:

Experience in Tall ships and/or Experiential Education is desired but applicants with strong work ethic and a proven interest in learning, will receive equal consideration. A willingness to work with volunteers, students, as well as the public is critical.

This is a part-time hourly position

To Apply:

Please email resume, cover letter, and three references to careers@seany.org. Email only, no phone calls please.

The South Street Seaport Museum is an Equal Opportunity Employer